National Center for Learning Disabilities

The power to hope, to learn, and to succeed

Apps to Help Students with Dyslexia and Reading Difficulties

1. "Read2Go": Bookshare subscribers can enjoy full control over font (size and color), along with text-to-speech technology, with this DAISY-formatted e-reader.

2. "ZoomReader": Use ZoomReader to read grocery-store labels, menus, signs, and more while on the go. A device with a

3. "Audiobooks from Audible": You or your child can listen to books on the go with this text-to-speech app that allows for digital literacy in various formats.

Download all 15 apps at www.LD.org/DyslexiaApps

@LDorg